PULWAMA ATTACK

On 14 February 2019, A suicide bomber rammed an explosive-laden car into a 16 vehicle convoy of the CRPF, killing more than 40 personnel in Kashmir's Pulwama district. In a video released on social media, the Pakistan-based terrorist group, Jaish-e-Mohammed (JeM), claimed responsibility for the attack, which has been deemed one of the deadliest attacks on Indian forces in decades. The attack drew worldwide condemnations and strained the already fraught relations between India and Pakistan and consequently almost precipitated between them.

Tuesday 14 February 2023, NCC cadets also expressed their gratitude in respect of the soldiers and poor personnels by organising candle lighting, prayers, etc in the presence of principal and faculties. The entire programme was applauded by everyone and will always remain as a respected memory in our hearts.
